Criteria for membership

Membership is open to individuals or corporate bodies with an interest in playing or teaching the piano. All applications for membership to EPTA UK are welcome and will be considered by the management committee.

Criteria for the different categories of membership:

Professional: for pianists, active in the piano teaching profession, who hold a qualification in performing and/or teaching. In lieu of qualifications, performing and teaching experience plus references from musicians of standing will be taken into account.

Associate: for pianists without the qualifications as outlined above but who have reached a capable playing standard and have some experience of teaching. References from musicians of standing will be taken into account.

Joint membership: available at a reduced rate for two members living at the same address.

Student membership: for those who are in full-time music education.

Friends of EPTA UK membership: for those who are not active in the profession, but who wish to receive the Piano Professional Magazine as a PDF, to attend conferences and regional events at reduced rates, to enter the annual competitions. Applicants must be 16 or over and can be from outside the UK.

Corporate membership: for companies and institutions with an interest in EPTA's work.

Emeritus membership: for retired members who have been members for 15 years or longer.
