

Membership benefits

FULL MEMBERS £70 (£90 for two full members living at the same address)

i) PROFESSIONAL: entitled to

- Entry in the Nationwide teachers' register and on the website
- Public liability insurance cover whilst teaching any instrument and for all professional gatherings
- Legal expenses cover for employment disputes and for bodily injury or death,
- A legal helpline with immediate access to expert advice on any aspect of members' lives
- Piano Professional magazine three times a year, Spring, Summer and Autumn
- Piano Journal magazine three times a year, Spring, Summer and Autumn
- Enter themselves and their pupils in the Piano Competition
- Enter themselves and their pupils in the Composer's Competition
- Access the John Bigg Bursary Fund
- Access the Mark Ray Memorial Fund
- The right to attend and vote at the AGM
- A copy of the EPTA UK handbook
- Admission to regional and national events at a reduced rate
- Encourage their pupils through EPTA Young Artists
- Use EPTA UK pupil/teacher contracts, account forms and reports
- Savings on personal and medical insurance through HMCA
- Access to password protected area of the website
- Promote personal musical recitals and events on the website through the administrator
- Helplines and Advice Notes related to teaching matters
- Regular email contact on music matters and events both national and international
- Regional Organisers providing local events and opportunities to make contact with other pianists

ii) ASSOCIATE: entitled to

- The same as Professional members with exception of entry in the Teachers Register
- Support for continuing professional development and advise on qualification

FRIENDS OF EPTA UK MEMBERS £30 are entitled to

- PDF version of Piano Professional magazine three times a year, Spring, Summer and Autumn
- The right to attend and vote at the AGM
- Admission to regional and national events at a reduced rate and to enter the annual competitions. Applicants must be 16 or over and can be from outside the UK.
- Regular email contact on music matters and events both national and international

STUDENT MEMBERS £10 (concessionary rate) for those who are in full-time music education and for those in other employment who are not professional musicians and who are studying part-time for a music degree or diploma are entitled to

- Public liability insurance cover whilst teaching any instrument and for all professional gatherings
- Piano Professional magazine three times a year, Spring, Summer and Autumn
- A copy of the EPTA UK handbook
- The right to attend and vote at the AGM
- Admission to regional and national events at a reduced rate
- Enter pupils in the Piano Competition
- Enter themselves and their pupils in the Composer's Competition
- Access to password protected area of the website
- Regular email contact on music matters and events both national and international
- Promote personal musical recitals and events on the website through the administrator

CORPORATE MEMBERS £130 are entitled to

- Piano Professional magazine three times a year, Spring, Summer and Autumn
- Admission to regional and national events at a reduced rate for two employees
- An entry in the News section of the magazine
- Enter one pupil in the Piano Competition
- Enter pupils in the Composers Competition
- The right of one representative to attend and vote at the AGM
- A copy of the EPTA UK handbook
- Entry in the Corporate members' register
- Reduced rates for advertising in the magazine
- An invitation to exhibit at Annual Conference
- Access to password protected area of the website
- Promote events on the website through the administrator

EMERITUS MEMBERSHIP £20 for retired members who have been with EPTA UK for over 15 years, are entitled to the same as affiliate membership