

Aims

To inspire, encourage, motivate, and honour high levels of piano playing and piano teaching nationwide, and to promote musical awareness through participation in performing.

Rules of Entry

- The competition has an age limit of 25 and under (at 31st August 2025) for all graded categories.
- Entrants are allowed to enter one class only.

Categories

- Graded Classes
 - These are open to all pianists except for principal study pianists at specialist music schools or Junior Conservatoires. Participants from these institutions who are not principal study will need to confirm this on the entry form. The competition organisers reserve the right to contact the institution concerned if in any doubt.
- Age Range Classes
 - These are open to all pianists including those at a specialist music school or Junior Conservatoire.
 - If the demand for any Age Range Class is substantial, the adjudicator retains the right to select in advance part of the programme.

Round 1

- All participants will receive verbal and written adjudications and certificates of entry.
- Round 1 adjudicators and venues will be chosen by the Regional Organiser.
- Certificates of ‘high commendation’ will be awarded where appropriate by the adjudicator.
- The adjudicator will choose one performer from each class in each category to go forward into the regional final rounds. A second can be considered only in exceptional circumstances if the adjudicator deems both performances to be ‘equally’ worthy.
- Performances selected for the regional final rounds must be “Outstanding”
It is not necessary or expected that anyone be ranked according to number or place.
 - If more than two performers received “Outstanding” a maximum of two may go through. There are no exceptions and this important rule must always be observed.
 - If numbers are very small in a class, or no competitor achieves the required standard, there is no obligation to put students through to the regional finals.
 - Winners for Classes below Intermediate I (Preparatory & Elementary) will be decided in the first round and prizes awarded accordingly. There will be no progression to the regional Final for these categories.

The preparatory class will have the option of non-competitive entries. All non-competitive entries will receive a certificate of participation. All first rounds must be completed by 28th February 2025.
